"Since 2009, the Walters Art Museum has been honored to host the Dahlia Flute Duo playing numerous concerts and recitals. Listen and be amazed! This duo is inextricably linked. . . Consummate performers, their repertoire is expansive - and during introductions, they'll often share fascinating details. It's no wonder that in several months, they've quickly become audience favorites."

– Lisa Lewenz
Director of Adult Programs, The Walters Art Museum, Baltimore, MD

"I have been continually impressed with the technical and artistic abilities of these two young women. They are both consummate musicians with great taste in repertoire as well as the manner in which it is performed."

– Bill Nerenberg
Director, Peabody Presents & Distinguished Visiting Faculty, Peabody Institute

"The two of you are adorable! Dramatic, playful, enchanting to listen to. Musical, beautifully articulated. Your ensemble was also well done . . . I enjoyed your performance."

– Dr. Barbara Ryland Wells
Judge, 2010 Mary Graham Lasley Scholarship Competition
Assistant Dean & Professor of Music, Northern VA Community College - Alexandria Campus

"Thank you for representing Peabody and its mission so well. Please accept my personal best wishes on your achievement."

– Dr. Mellasenah Morris, Dean of the Peabody Conservatory

"Fantastic!"

"We felt the fun out in the audience! Bravo!"

"Excellent, expressive, and joyful!"
